

MAIL FORFEITED ON A CHARGE MADE OF IMMORALITY

Josie Adams, arrested with Jack Anderson in the Glenn hotel, forfeited $50 bail in police court this morning by non-appearance to the charge of immoral conduct. Anderson pleaded guilty to the same charge but his case was taken under advisement by the judge.

Anderson said that he had come to Ogden from Idaho on Tuesday and had gone to the hotel to meet a friend. He said he met company there and was invited into a room.

The arrest of the two was made Tuesday night by Sergeant H. C. Peterson and Patrolman Joseph Harbertson.

QUARANTINE SIGN TO BE USED IN CASE OF DOUBT

Sanitary Inspector George Shorten has adopted a method in dealing with suspicious cases during the early stages of the disease.

Now when physicians report that an illness is suspected of becoming contagious, the health officer will not wait until the disease has progressed. Instead, all such cases will be quarantined with a sign having the word "quarantine." If the illness proves not contagious, the sign will be removed. If it develops into a recognized case, the plain sign will be removed to be replaced with one naming the disease.

CONTRACT AWARDED FOR MESSENGER SERVICE

The Jorgensen Transfer company of Ogden was awarded the contract for messenger services in connection with the new terminal station in Ogden. For such work the company is to receive $1000 annually. The decision of the postoffice department was wired to Postmaster W. W. Browning this morning as follows:

"Jorgensen Transfer company designated messenger of new terminal branch. One thousand yearly. November 1. (Signed) Stewart, second ass't."

The successful company was one of seven whose bids were sent to Washington by the postmaster several days ago. The duties are to be given according to the telegram, November 1.

Chief Clerk Bangasser of the railway mail service could see no reason today why the terminal station should not be in operation in another week. The appointment of a permanent messenger to carry the mail between the station and the trains does away with the appointment of a temporary carrier. Also the room in the Kiesel hotel building is about ready for the sorting of the mail.

Eugene Dunsmore will have charge of the local station.

MAIL CARRIERS ARE FULL OF PRAISE FOR OGDEN

A testimonial to Ogden's hospitality and attractiveness is contained in a letter to J. S. Carver, from Secretary John A. Green of the National Retail Grocers association of the United States, dated at Cleveland, O., October 24. The letter demonstrates that courtesies extended visitors bring results and often advertise the city far and wide. The letter follows:

"During the last few weeks I have met a number of the mail carriers, who stopped in Ogden, Utah, on the way to the convention, and if ever you saw an enthusiastic lot of boosters for Utah it is those fellows whom you entertained. I have just had a talk with one of them. He tells me that the entire party had a very much different opinion of Utah and its people than they had before visiting your city. There are none of them that do not sing your praises. You must certainly have entertained them royally, and I can well imagine that you did from the treatment that I have had every time it has been my pleasure to visit Ogden. Acts of kindness travel far and the results are very much more than our selfish anticipations."

"I very often think of the passage of scripture which says: 'Cast thy bread upon the waters, etc.' It is so in your case. The treatment accorded these men while going through your city, will live long in their minds and the influence they exert will be very much more far reaching than you could possibly anticipate. It is a very common occurrence to have people tell you of the mean things that one may say about you but it is so very rarely that we get the few

WILL PRINT THE COURSE OF STUDIES

Superintendent J. M. Mills and clerks in the office of the board of education are arranging the type-written sheets of the course of study in the city schools preparatory to having booklets printed containing the course and other information for the use of the teachers.

The course has been followed for a year and the board has decided to adopt it as a permanent one. Consequently it is advisable to have the outlines for the teachers in convenient form.

AUTOMOBILE TAKEN SECOND TIME BY JOY RIDERS

While Joe Thomas was attending the wedding reception at the Virginia last evening, "joy riders" made use of his automobile and left it after their ride on Madison avenue, where it was found this morning.

This is the second time Mr. Thomas has been the victim of the why-buys-an-automobile clan. Two men took his car last summer but the car stopped on them and the men received 90 days.

HIGH SCHOOL IS TO HAVE A BIG 'BOOSTER'

Already forecasting the defeat of the Jordan football team, which plays with Ogden high school, Saturday, the students of the local school are all wearing tags, funeral in appearance, and inviting all to participate at Jordan's funeral. The following cheerful announcement is borne on the cards:

"Come and sing 'Victory, victory is our cry—V-I-C-T-O-R-Y.' 'Are we in it? Well I guess, 'Ogden High School—O. H. S.' At Jordan's funeral, Saturday, November 1, at Glenwood football grounds."

Also the students have arranged for a high school "Booster" which is to appear in the Standard tomorrow afternoon. The talent of the school has been called upon to contribute, and the material promises to be highly interesting to readers.

The juniors are working hard to make their annual dance tomorrow night a success. It is to be strictly a Halloween affair and will begin promptly at 8:30 o'clock in order that all may make connections with the street cars and at the same time have a full evening of enjoyment.

Under the direction of Miss June Seaworth and a group of able assistants, the most weird and ghostly decorations will be arranged tonight and tomorrow for the event. All the most enjoyable features of such a party will be provided for the entertainment of the guests. No invitations will be issued, but it is understood that all students and their friends are invited to participate.

ECCLES BUILDING TO HAVE STORE ROOMS BY FEBRUARY 1

The "stiff-leg" derrick has been erected on top of the Eccles skyscraper and steel bases for the columns are being placed in position. Steel construction will begin tomorrow and in three weeks' time the skeleton will be finished.

Manager Larkins of the Dinwiddie company states that the annex will be closed in as rapidly as possible so as to make certain that a force of men can be kept on the job even in stormy weather.

The partition walls on the various floors are being erected rapidly and it will not be long until finishing work on the entire interior of the building will begin.

It is planned to have a part of the ground floor ready for business purposes by February 1. Building material is on hand, leaving no room for delay in building operations.

Last time tonight—world's series baseball pictures, Orpheum; 10 cents.

Sixty days or $60 was the sentence given by Judge W. H. Reader this morning to Frank Smith, a laborer, who pleaded guilty to stealing an overcoat from the check room of the Healy hotel last evening. Smith pleaded drunkenness as his excuse but all witnesses for the city declared that Smith bore no signs of intoxication when arrested.

According to the testimony, Smith walked into the hotel from the Wall avenue entrance and carelessly selected an overcoat from the rack. As he was walking out through the lobby, the bell boy asked the night clerk if the man had presented a check. When the answer came in the negative, the fellow was stopped and held until the arrest was made.

Alec Hercher, charged with drunkenness, was given a suspended sentence. He asked Jailer Hagbert Anderson for lodging last evening and the jailer locked him up because he was intoxicated.

D. McElroy and Lloyd Kennedy, both charged with drunkenness, forfeited $5 bail each.

Maurice N. Tucker was sentenced to serve sixty days in the county jail by Judge W. H. Reader this morning after the young man, through his attorney, pleaded guilty to a complaint charging him with obtaining money and credit at the First National bank by false and fraudulent pretenses.

The complaint contained three counts and was sworn to by James F. Burton, assistant cashier of the bank. The complaint charges that on October 4, Tucker presented to the bank a fraudulent sight draft for $1250, drawn upon the Joseph Horne Co. of Pittsburg, Pa., and received the amount from the bank. For a second count the complaint charges that on October 7, Tucker received $42 by the same method and the third count charges that he received on October 8, $3250.

IS SENTENCED TO SIXTY DAYS

When the bank learned that Tucker had no right to draw upon the Pittsburg firm, the matter was put before County Attorney David Jensen, who issued a warrant for Tucker's arrest on October 16.

The attorney for Tucker waived the reading of the complaint this morning and entered a plea of guilty, stating that he and his client would abide by the recommendation of the county attorney that a sentence of 60 days in jail be imposed.

Judge F. C. Loofbourrow of Salt Lake was on the bench of the district court this morning hearing arguments on a demurrer in the case of J. S. Lewis against the Pingree National bank. He took the matter under advisement and returned to the capital, giving no intimation as to when he will render a decision.

The defendant's demurrer is based on the grounds that the complaint is ambiguous and does not state facts sufficient to constitute a cause of action. Numerous authorities were cited on both sides and the attorneys will be required to furnish the judge with briefs.

CONSTRUCTION OF THE WHEELER CREEK PIPE LINE

This morning the board of city commissioners referred bids for the construction of the Wheeler Creek pipe line to Mayor Fell with power to act.

The lowest bid was that of Andrew Ashton, and the city engineer recommended that the contract be awarded to him, but the board deemed it advisable to have the mayor consider the matter. Mr. Ashton bid $3,287.77 while the only other bid was that of George A. Whittemyer & Sons in the sum of $4,531.75.

This pipe line will extend across what is known as the Wilcox camping grounds and is being built for the purpose of placing the Wheeler Creek water intake for the city water mains above a point where there is danger of contamination. No little trouble and uneasiness have been caused during the season because of alleged contamination of the waters of Wheeler Creek, from which source much of the supply of the city water has been drawn. A number of tests of the water have been made, disclosing that the water is not as pure as it should be.

It was decided that city commissioners shall sit as a board of equalization and review to hear from the taxpayers respecting the paving of district No. 106, beginning November 1, and continuing in session until November 6.

Resolutions of notice of intention to create a sewer district on a part of Ballantyne avenue, which is between Twentieth and Twenty-first streets, was passed and the notice was ordered published.

The claims of August Jensen for sidewalk building, in the sum of $507.77, were allowed and the auditor instructed to draw warrants.

The plats of dedication of Parley avenue, between Twelfth street and Cross avenue, presented by the city engineer, were approved and ordered filed.

The petition of the Ogden Veteran Firemen's association for $150 to aid in the purchase of uniforms for the veterans, was referred to Commissioner T. Samuel Browning, superintendent of public safety.

Payrolls and claims were allowed as follows:

Official	$2,956.50
Waterworks	565.00
Fire department	1,754.08
Police department	2,175.00
Miscellaneous claims	24.91

WM. A. BRADY

Sends Another Good Show to Ogden.

"Ready Money," a comedy of love, romance, risk and thrills, under the management of William A. Brady, Ltd., will be the offering at the Orpheum theatre on Sunday, November 2, with Robert Ober in the role of "Stephen Baird." The author, James Montgomery, brings a decidedly fresh treatment to one of the present day problems in his comedy, "Ready Money."

There is Grace Tyler who is very much in love with Stephen Baird and there is Grace's mother who objects to Stephen; furthermore, who decides that her daughter shall marry Stephen. There seems nothing the matter with the young man except that he is discouraged and downhearted at his ill luck. It doesn't give Stephen much satisfaction to reflect that the mother of his beloved is unreasonable. He casts about for something that will allow him to overcome parental difficulties. And the manner of his doing so makes up one of the most successful comedies in years.

The situation is now new, but the treatment is altogether unique and those who still believe in love and romance followed with keen interest the affairs of Grace Tyler and Stephen Baird in "Ready Money."

Manager Brady has provided a company of unusual excellence, including Robert Ober, Douglas Wood, Nena Blake, Mary Carlisle, Clarence Rockefeller, Estelle Wynne, John C. Brownell, Adelaide Hastings, and fifteen others to interpret the comedy and a scenic environment of artistic beauty. Seats on sale tomorrow.

BEET GROWERS HAD TO STOP DIGGING THIS WEEK

Lyman Skeen of Plain City states that the storm of this morning is very light at his home. The farmers are hoping that the rain fall will not be heavy at this time, as the ground is now in excellent condition for fall plowing, and for sugar beet digging it could not be better.

The beet growers in Plain City have had to suspend digging a few days ago, due to the fact that the sugar company could not handle all that were being offered at the factory. Mr. Skeen says, however, that orders to resume digging tomorrow have been sent out.

If weather conditions continue favorable, the Plain City crop of beets can be out of the ground in the next two weeks.

Later the wheat market showed additional weakness but covering of a short line for a large speculator helped to rally prices. The close was easy, 1-8 to 1-8 1-4 under last night.

Argentine competition at interior Texas points had a bearish effect on corn, until a rally in wheat caused the market to harden. The close was steady, unchanged to 1-8 1-4 up compared with the night before.
